Blue Sky Vision Welcomes Candi Hamilton as Executive Director

GRAND RAPIDS, Michigan, December 13, 2018 – Candi Hamilton has been named Executive Director for central and southern Michigan Blue Sky Vision practices. Hamilton brings over 22 years of eye care experience to the company.

“We are excited to welcome Candi to our administrative support team,” said Surya Desiraju, Chief Operating Officer of Blue Sky Vision. “We are confident that Candi’s experience will help our practices continue to provide unmatched eye care to our patients.”

Most recently, Hamilton was the Specialty Director for Ophthalmology at NextGen Healthcare in the Glendale, AZ area where she was the expert on ophthalmic subject matter for 4,000 professionals. Prior to that, she was the Director of Clinical Operations for Graystone Eye in North Carolina.

“We are fortunate to have an Executive Director with Candi’s experience,” said Bill Hughson, CEO of Blue Sky Vision. “Her expertise in NextGen and operations will be an incredible asset as we grow and support our team of ophthalmologists and optometrists in central and southern Michigan.”

Hamilton is a certified ophthalmic technician, certified optician, and NextGen certified professional. She is also a professional presenter at the American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO), American College of Surgeons Case Report Journal (ACSSCR), and NextGen UGM.
